

Atom seeks tie up with 25 travel suppliers

MUMBAI—Atom Technologies plans to tie up with about 25 travel suppliers for their m-payments platform services. Atom is looking at entering into a close alliance with airlines, tour operators, online travel agents and hotels to offer mobile payment solutions to their end consumers. Currently several travel agencies like Flykrazzy, Oxward Travels, Ticketvala, etc have recently started using these services. Apart from aiming to work with major travel suppliers, it is targeting to have 'a million' subscribers on their m-payment gateways in the country by end of March 2009.
